7th Week of the Quarter

"CHAPEL: A FULLER SERVICE OF WORSHIP"

MONDAY
May 11

Prayer and Fellowship Groups

(See listing for time and location of individual groups.)

TUESDAY
May 12

CONVOCATION in the Congregational Pilgrim Chapel. We welcome a distinguished visitor, Fr. Elias Chacour, a Melkite priest from Ibillin in Galilee. He is a Palestinian, a Christian, a pacifist and a man of tremendous dedication to people. He is being heard nationally with great interest by all groups concerned with peace and justice in the Middle East.

WEDNESDAY
May 13

Dr. Paul Pierson, Dean of our School of World Mission, will be our preacher.

THURSDAY
May 14

Dr. Marvin Webster, our Pastor-in-Residence, will lead our worship. He will be returning to his church in Santa Cruz on Friday, so this will be his last chapel message during his stay with us. We are grateful for his ministry.

WOMEN - there are many opportunities for you. Sign up in Placement Office.

SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS/LECTURES

- What do you do with a theology degree if you are not sure about going into the pastorate? Where are you Called?, May 11, Monday, at 7:30 p.m. in Payton 101 features professionals in a variety of fields who have found that their call led elsewhere than to be a minister. Mel White and others will be featured in an evening designed to help those considering these issues. For more information, contact Libbie Patterson, X. 3837.
- Killing Us Softly, a documentary film depicting media/advertising images of women, will be shown Monday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. in Payton 101A. This is an important presentation for everyone who is unaware of advertising strategies. Discussion and methods for dealing with these issues will follow. All are welcome.
- Christian Perspectives in Sexual Enjoyment - Clifford L. Penner, Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist, Fuller alum, Board of Trustee member, and his wife, Joyce J. Penner, M.N., a nurse, will conduct a seminar on Human Sexuality on Friday and Saturday, May 8,9 at the First United Methodist Church, San Gabriel, 201 N. San Gabriel Blvd., San Gabriel. This two-day seminar will begin Friday, 7:30-10 p.m. and conclude Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Cost is $35/couple for the entire two days.
- School of Theology Convocation (May 22) - will focus on SOT planning as it affects the MDiv program. MA students are encouraged to attend, because of common concerns which unite the two programs. Payton 301, 10 a.m. (Note date change)
- Integration Lectures:
  - Tuesday, May 12, Eric F. Evenhuis, DM and H. Douglas Faber, M.D., Christian Therapy Unit - Horizon Hospital, will speak on "Hospital Christian Therapy Units" at noon in Payton 101A.
  - Wednesday, May 20, Hendrika Vande Kemp, Ph.D., Associate Professor, FTS Graduate School of Psychology, will speak on "The Several Meanings of 'Psyche'." Payton 101B, noon.
- Mini-Seminar on Recruiting and Motivating Volunteers will be offered by the Institute of Youth Ministries from 6:30-10 p.m. on Thursday, May 21 in the Geneva Room. Fee is $2. Register in the IYM office or mail to Box 241.

- Babysitting Co-op Meeting May 12, 10 a.m. at Cindy Reimer's home, 703 Atchison St. Please call 794-2433 if you will not be able to attend.
- "Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back" - an evening of Poetry reading and oral interpretation. Saturday, May 9th at 7:30 p.m. in the Catalyst. (David Robinson, Box 1364)
- Share the Vision - Dr. Paul Pierson will share the vision for many prospects in the future of SWM on Monday, May 11 from 12 to 1 in Payton 101B (note room change).

COMMENCEMENT

- Graduating seniors who have not received Commencement Handbooks in their boxes can obtain them in the Provost's Office.
- Commencement announcements will be distributed in the mailroom beginning May 11. Additional announcements may be available the week of May 18.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- Travel to Hearst Castle, Morro Bay and Solvang with International Students, Inc., on May 16-17. Cost: $20. See Laura Raab for further information.
- Have you returned the survey sheet to John Graybill's mailbox? If not, please do so as soon as possible. Thank you.

FINANCIAL AID

- Financial Aid awarding is in progress. In order to accomplish it in a timely manner, it will be necessary to limit visits to the financial aid office to certain times weekly instead of following the "open access" method. It is suggested that an appointment made with Betty Means at x. 3832 would be best. Thank you. (Claire Wartenberg)
- Guaranteed Student Loan Program regulations are unlikely to be changed before October 1, 1981. If a student loan is in your future and you are a first-time borrower, we urge you to make application as early as you can for a loan in order to get into the program at this time. The changes may be radical.
- NDSL checks are now ready. Please pick them up no later than May 22, 1981, in the Bus. Off.

IM/SPORTS

- Office hours for the Sports office are 9-12, Tuesday and Thursday. The office is located on the 3rd floor of the Student Center.
- Sports Commissioner application deadline is Tuesday, May 12. Contact Mark Krone, Box 562.
- The tennis ladder is now posted on the IM board. Newcomers welcome!
- All members of the Fuller community are invited to participate in the 5 and 10 K run this Friday, May 15. No registration fee required. Registration at 6:30 a.m. at Brookside Country Club. Directions to the Club are on the IM board.

HEALTH CARE

- $180 psychotherapy benefit for all student insurance policyholders. See the Health Coordinators for more information, Box 38.
- Teeth cleaned and x-rayed for $20. See Health Coordinators for details. Box 38.
- ID cards for student policyholders and their spouses are available in the Health Office. The ID card is important for verifying insurance at hospitals and doctor offices. Request your card through Box 38.
- Free Health Care! The Los Angeles Free Clinic, at 8405 Beverly Blvd., provides free medical, dental, therapy, and legal services as well as free prescriptions and free lab tests to patients of adolescent age and older. Call the Clinic for more details at (213)656-1990.

MISCELLANEOUS

- Bicycles are not to be parked in the Garth area. The only place where bikes may be parked are in the bike racks - behind Slessor and beside the Catalyst.
- The cost to replace a lost key has been raised due to inflation. It is now $2 per key.
- D.Min. students will be here May 11-22 for the seminar "Building Christian Community Through Small Groups," (Roberta Hestenes) and the courses "Community Issues in First Corinthians," (Russ Spittler) and "The Art of Teaching the Christian Faith," (Dave Stoop). A list of students is posted on the general bulletin board. Contact them through Cont. Ed. office.
- The Hispanic Ministries Department announces their forthcoming banquet in honor of the hispanic students graduating this year. Friday, May 15, 6 p.m. at Lake Ave. Congregational Church. Cost is $7.50. - Everyone invited. Get tickets from Hispanic Min. Office, Bldg. 150.
- FOUND: A sweater was left at the Graduating Women's Dessert at La Cresta. Claim in Libbie Patterson's office.
- Do you enjoy exquisite cuisine, dressing to the nines, hearing a good speaker, laughing with friends, seeing yourself in unguarded moments? Make plans now to attend the Semi-Formal Sports and Recreation Banquet on Friday, May 29. There will be special humor awards presented. You don't need to be an athlete to come. Reservations required. Box 562 or x. 3849.
- Fuller polo shirts - order now! Light blue (with navy logo) or tan (with brown logo). Cost is $8.75 (includes tax). Pay with order. They are a good cotton/polyester blend knit with pocket. Deadline for ordering is May 15. To order, either a) send money and ordering info to Evelyn Dugan, Box 470 (include name, box, size, color, and money) or b) come to TGU office (rm. 201 above Catalyst) or c) order in Garth 10-noon, Tues., Thurs., May 12, 14.
- Coming next fall: A seminary paper, our forum for news and comment on issues of concern for seminarians. If you are interested in being on the Board of Editors, send a note to John Lamb, Box 570.

Where are you called?

"I might not go into the ministry . . ."

"Can a call be to an M.Div. and not to the professional ministry?"

"How do you know?"

"If you don't go into the ministry, is that a 'lesser call'?"

"What else does someone do with a seminary education?"

MONDAY, MAY 11, 7:30 P.M., PAYTON 101

These are the issues we will be discussing. We will feature Fuller graduates who have wrestled with these questions, and found answers. They will be sharing both the questions, and what they have found.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

MEL WHITE: author, film producer faculty professor

JOHN RICHARDSON: Assistant Professor of Business Administration, Pepperdine
University

KEN ROSS: Director, Mission Training and Resource Center

STEVE PATTIE: artist, administrator

MARTY REITZIN: owner/manager, Omega Maintenance

. . . AND OTHERS

SPONSORED BY CAREER DEVELOPMENT; LIBBIE PATTERSON, EXT. 3837.

COMMENCEMENT LINEUP

● ANNOUNCEMENTS.....MAY 11-15

Each graduate may pick up 12 Commencement announcements at the message center desk in the mailroom between May 11 and May 15 (8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.).

If you graduated summer, fall or winter quarter and have left the Pasadena area—or if you are a D.Min. or Extension graduate—you can receive your 12 announcements by indicating your interest on the attached response form and returning it before May 1. We will send your announcements to you.

A limited number of extra announcements will be available in the mailroom beginning May 18.

● AWARDS CONVOCATION.....MAY 29

The presentation of annual awards will be held on Friday, May 29 at 10:00 a.m. at the First Congregational Church.

● BACCALAUREATE SERVICE.....JUNE 12

The 1981 Baccalaureate Service will be held on Friday, June 12 at 10:00 a.m. in the sanctuary of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church. Graduates and faculty will meet in the Fellowship Hall promptly at 9:30 a.m. to form the processional. Academic regalia is worn for this occasion.

FULLER'S ALUMNI DAY

5k & 10k RUN

FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1981 7:00AM

The theme of this year's Alumni Day is
THE ROLE OF LEISURE IN AN AGE OF ANXIETY.

To start the day's events off there will be a 5 kilometer and 10 kilometer race. Staff faculty members, administrators, and all students are invited to join the alumni in this special event.

RACE COURSE: The race will begin at the Brookside Golf Club, 1133 Rosemont next to the Rose Bowl and be a run of the Rose Bowl course.

DISTANCE: Everyone is invited since you have your choice between running 5 or 10 kilometers. Timers will be stationed at intervals to call off the time and at the finish line your time will be recorded.

REGISTRATION: At 6:30AM on Friday morning at Brookside Golf Club registration will be free.

*T-shirts may be purchased at race time for $5
(Please show your interest by filling out the form below)

SHOWERS: At Brookside Golf Club showers will be available for a small fee for those interested. (Please indicate below)

I am interested in participating in the Fuller Alumni Day 5 & 10K Race and would be interested in ( ) purchasing a T-shirt for $5.00

Name _____ ( ) using the shower facilities.

Tear off this bottom section and place in the campus mail slot.

NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOOKSTORE include:

Jack B. Rogers and Forrest Baird, Introduction to Philosophy: A Case Study Approach (Harper & Row)--twelve Key philosophers from classical to modern times are introduced through case studies, with contemporary responses offered by philosophy professors from across the country.

Gary R. Collins (ed. H. Newton Maloney), Psychology and Theology: Prospects for Integration (Abingdon)--the 1978 Finch Lectures, sponsored by our School of Psychology, with an additional chapter by our own Dr. Maloney.

Biblical Studies

Lawrence Boadt, Helga Croner and Leon Klenicki, Biblical Studies: Meeting Ground of Jews and Christians, Studies in Judaism and Christianity (Paulist)--the dialogue between Catholics and Jews continues, this time with regard to approaches to biblical interpretation.

Malka Drucker, Passover: A Season of Freedom (Holiday House)--a brief introduction to the history and rituals of the Jewish Passover celebration.

Eugene H. Glassman, The Translation Debate: What Makes a Bible Translation Good? (InterVarsity)--a translations advisor to the United Bible Societies gives advice on what to look for in a translation.

Three more volumes of the New Century Bible commentary series, in the new paperback edition (Eerdmans), have arrived:

A. A. Anderson, Psalms (1-72)

A. A. Anderson, Psalms (73-150)

G. R. Beasley-Murray, Revelation

Church History

Anne Hudson (ed.), Selections from English Wycliffite Writings (Cambridge)--a collection of primary sources for a study of the Lollards, reproducing the original Middle English text, with a glossary for the modern reader.

Cornelius Krahn, Dutch Anabaptism (Herald)--traces the Anabaptism of the Low Countries from its earliest beginnings to the end of the sixteenth century, with special emphasis on the last hundred years before the death of Menno Simons.

Georges Duby, The Age of the Cathedrals: Art and Society, 980-1420 (University of Chicago)--a fascinating tour of the Middle Ages as reflected in the art and architecture of the period, in a book which was a best seller in France.

Theology and Philosophy

Walter Kasper, An Introduction to Christian Faith (Paulist)--a distinguished Catholic theologian from the University of Tübingen, known for his work in christology, tries to chart a middle ground between conservatism and radicalism.

Geoffrey H. Hartman, Saving the Text: Literature/Derrida/Philosophy (Johns Hopkins)--a helpful guide to Derrida's complex and sometimes eccentric blending of philosophy, commentary and elaborate wordplay.

Gordon Wells (ed.), Learning through Interaction: The Study of Language Development (Cambridge)--the results of the researches of the Bristol Study of Language Development on how children learn to talk.

Spirituality

Richard J. Foster, Freedom of Simplicity (Harper & Row)--the author of Celebration of Discipline shows the liberating power of the Christian lifestyle of simplicity.

- Morton Kelsey, Transcend: A Guide to the Spiritual Quest (Crossroad)--mystical experiences which form a bridge between psychology and spirituality--such as dreams, healing, tongue speaking and "slaying in the spirit"--are put into perspective.
- Morton Kelsey, The Cross: Meditations on the Seven Last Words of Christ (Paulist)--the crucifixion is viewed through the eyes of seven people standing at the foot of the cross on Good Friday.
- Karl Rahner (ed. J. Griffiths), Prayers and Meditations: An Anthology of the Spiritual Writings of Karl Rahner (Crossroad)--insight into the deep spirituality of this monumental theologian.
- James E. Loder, The Transforming Moment: Understanding Convictional Experiences (Harper & Row)--an attempt to understand "convictional knowing"--sudden life-changing bursts of religious realization, even ecstasy--by a professor of practical theology at Princeton.
- Thomas Keating, The Heart of the World: A Spiritual Catechism (Crossroad)--a Cistercian monk offers an introduction to contemplative Christianity for serious seekers.
- James R. Newby (ed.), The Best of Elton Trueblood (Impact)--an anthology of classics by the dean of America's religious writers.
- Alma Barkman, Times to Treasure (Moody)--a beautifully illustrated gift book of meditations, perfect for Mother's Day.
- Charles Toye, Prayers and Meditations for Healing (Paulist)--material developed by the Send Your Spirit ministry, giving guidance on how to meditate.
- John Main, Word into Silence (Paulist)--an encouragement to "turn aside" not to escape from life but to discover through meditation the deepest center of our being.
- Marvin Hein, Like a Shock of Wheat: Meditations on Death (Herald)--in the words of Dr. David Hubbard, "The author knows that we are gripped by the gospel just at those points where all human news has turned bad."
- Thomas Ryan, Fasting Rediscovered: A Guide to Health and Wholeness for Your Body-Spirit (Paulist)--a new look at fasting for those who seek wholeness and holiness in the unity of body and spirit.
- Helen Brenneman, Morning Joy: Meditations for Those Who Have Suffered Loss (Herald)--a gift book of meditations for the bereaved.
- Ron DelBene, The Breath of Life: A Simple Way to Pray (Winston)--breath prayers: short, simple, ancient prayers of praise and petition that help us become aware of the presence of God.

World Missions and Anthropology

- George W. Peters, A Theology of Church Growth (Zondervan)--neither a polemical analysis of current theories nor an apologetic defense of church growth, but the development of a biblical framework for defining church growth principles, building primarily on the Book of Acts.
- H. B. Dehquani-Tafti, The Hard Awakening (Seabury)--the first Iranian bishop of the Episcopal Church in Iran, now in exile, writes first-hand of the pain and struggle his country has been going through, which has included the tragic murder of his son.
- Herman L. Reyes, Breaking Through (Kaunlaran)--a Fuller alumnus (D.Miss.) analyzes the reasons why the Seventh-Day Adventist Church has grown to be the largest Protestant church in the Philippines.
- Barbara Lloyd and John Gay (ed.), Universals of Human Thought: Some African Evidence (Cambridge)--a further exploration of the problem of relativism and universals, which is of special interest to cross-cultural workers and those involved in the study of hermeneutics.

Roland Oliver and Anthony Atmore, Africa Since 1800, Third Edition (Cambridge)--pre-colonial, colonial, independence and post-independence periods of African history are surveyed through 1979.

Ministry

- John H. Leith, The Church: A Believing Fellowship (John Knox)--a new edition of Leith's little classic on what it means to be a member of the church, designed for use in classes for new members.
- Donald Macleod, Presbyterian Worship: Its Meaning and Method (John Knox)--a revised edition of this in-depth look at Christian worship, covering Sunday worship, sacraments, weddings and funerals.
- C. W. Brister, James L. Cooper and J. David Fite, Beginning Your Ministry (Abingdon)--after monitoring the first five years of the ministries of twelve seminarians, the authors share the insights gained to help others bridge the transition from campus to congregation.
- James W. Cox (ed.), The Twentieth Century Pulpit, Vol. 2 (Abingdon)--powerful messages by an impressive group of preachers, centering on the theme of social and ethical issues.
- Frank Colquhoun, Hymns That Live: Their Meaning and Message (InterVarsity)--sketches of the background, structure, language, content and message of forty hymns.
- Thomas C. Campbell and Gary B. Reiersen, The Gift of Administration: Theological Bases for Ministry (Westminster)--the transformation of administrative work from a necessary evil to an avenue of ministry for Christ.
- David W. Perry (ed.), Making Sense of Things: Towards a Theology of Homegrown Christian Education (Seabury)--a symposium of Christian educators brought together by the national coordinator of the office of religious education of the Episcopal Church.
- Keith Phillips, The Making of a Disciple (Revell)--a Fuller Alumnus offers a helpful guide to discipleship.
- Jan Linn, Living Out God's Love: Mission Groups in Action (Judson)--the stories of church mission groups throughout the country which have turned pew sitters into active disciples reaching out to meet the needs of the community.
- Paul B. Maves, Older Volunteers in Church and Community: A Manual for Ministry (Judson)--how to challenge retired persons in the church to use their skills and experience in meaningful volunteer work.
- Thomas E. McLeod, The Work of the Church Treasurer (Judson)--a very helpful manual for the volunteer church treasurer or financial secretary.

Current Issues

- Amory B. Lovins and L. Hunter Lovins, Energy/War: Breaking the Nuclear Link: A Prescription for Non-Proliferation (Harper & Row)--disputes current arguments that nuclear research is necessary for the current energy crisis and international political stability.
- Walter Berns, For Capital Punishment: Crime and the Morality of the Death Penalty (Harper & Row)--a professor of political science at the University of Toronto argues that capital punishment is necessary not as a deterrent but as a continual reminder of the moral order by which we must live.
- George McRobie, Small Is Possible (Harper & Row)--how the Intermediate Technology Development Group is putting into practice the ideas of E. F. Schumacher.
- David M. Beckmann, Where Faith and Economics Meet: A Christian Critique (Augsburg)--the co-author of The Overseas List, a seminary graduate and practicing economist, gives his views on the current world economic situation.
